EXPERIENCE

Zach Harris is an attorney in HunterMaclean's real estate group with significant experience in commercial real estate transactions and development projects, commercial leasing and landlord/tenant disputes, community associations, land use and zoning, government affairs, and permitting.

Prior to rejoining HunterMaclean, Zach served as in-house counsel for the Jekyll Island Authority where he oversaw an extensive commercial leasing portfolio, supervised procurement and contract matters, and managed its intellectual property assets. He has also served as an in-house counsel to the Georgia Department of Natural Resources, where he handled contracts and procurement, land use and coastal regulatory matters, and represented the department in administrative hearings.

Zach has served on the boards of several community nonprofit organizations and as a member of the Georgia Coastal Marshlands Protection Committee, the Shore Protection Committee, and the Brunswick Area Transportation Study Citizens' Committee. He is a graduate of Leadership Glynn and a supporter of the Glynn County Bar Association, the Brunswick-Golden Isles Chamber of Commerce, and the St. Simons Land Trust.

Zach earned his B.A. in Political Science and Religion from Emory University and his J.D. from Georgia State University College of Law. He is licensed to practice before all Georgia courts and the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Georgia.
