EXPERIENCE

Lucken Wilson is an associate in HunterMaclean's Savannah office, where he practices in the firm's Litigation Practice Group.

Lucken earned his B.A. in Philosophy from Coastal Carolina University in 2021, graduating summa cum laude. In undergrad, he was active in the National Philosophy and National English Honor Societies, served as a Jackson Scholar in Ethical Leadership, and participated in student organizations focused on advocacy and inclusion.

He earned his J.D. from Emory University School of Law in 2025. During law school, he was a member of the Emory Moot Court Society and was active in the Black Law Students Association, serving as co-director of alumni relations. He also participated in the Real Estate Law Society and the Corporate & Business Law Society.

Lucken served as a summer associate with HunterMaclean in 2024.

He previously interned with Lashgari & Associates in Atlanta, where he assisted with litigation in products liability and personal injury cases. He also interned with Justice Kaye Hearn of the South Carolina Supreme Court, where he researched legal arguments and prepared memoranda in support of appellate review.

Outside of work, he enjoys distance running, playing guitar, and studying existentialist and moral philosophy.
